

Jebsen PTC applauds the heroism of Capt. Amancio Plazuela

A passing LPG tanker managed by Apollo Ship Management en route to the port of Cartagena rescued eleven Cuban migrants and transported them to the Cayman Islands last November 26. The rescue operations were led by Jebsen PTC's Captain Amancio Lino Plazuela, Master, together with the onboard team of LPG/C Irene A.

The migrants were welcomed onboard where they received a medical check-up before they were turned over to officials in accordance with the Cayman Islands Customs and Border Control Service's protocol.

Jebsen PTC commends the heroism carried out by Captain Plazuela and the rest of the crew onboard Irene A.
